RE: CASE NUMBER 07-0019

Dear Sir,

I, KIM, HONG KYUN, manager of DKK INC. inform to your office as follows:

1. Our company is engaged in a poker shop operating 24 hours within 7 days a week and with 3 (three) employees. But our employees want extra job so they decided to make a settlement with us that they are willing to work for an additional of 4 hours overtime daily without pay in order for them to work for Saturdays and Sundays overtime; and with 2 (two) employees only to work instead of 3 (three) because they want additional money and they are willing for 12 hours workload daily. We accepted and agreed to their settlement with us because there is no difference if we have 2 (two) instead of 3 (three) employees in a poker shop. The amount of salary that we will give to them is still the same and we want also our employees to earn extra income. Based on the time sheet, the employees have 80 regulars hours multiply by $3.05 rate and 32 hours overtime multiply by $4.575 overtime rate.
2. Ms. Mesik practice tardiness in her work and sometimes drunk when performing her duties.
3. According to Ms. Mesik and with her stories to her co-employees, she bought her IR (Immediate Resident) status so her IR is illegal or fraud so we decided to release her so to avoid in any problem that will arise with her status and in order for her to find another job.

Hope to hear from you soonest.

Respectfully Yours,

KIM, HONG KYUN
Manager
